

Gazebo Theatre Company are bringing their latest Professional Touring Show

WANTED

to a Theatre near you!

13 March 2020 – Hazlitt Theatre, Maidstone

“Wanted” shares the stories of 4 remarkable historical women and one young woman living in today’s UK society, and is ideally suited for students in Key Stages 3, 4 and 5!

As one of the longest standing Theatre In Education Companies still in existence in the UK, Gazebo are experts when it comes to creating theatre that is relevant, educational and appealing to younger audiences, as well as adults.

“Wanted” features drama, movement, humour, spoken word and anime, and is an ideal way to mark Women’s History Month, encourage discussion and address a wide range of topics and subject areas including History, Drama, Women in Science, English-Poetry and Spoken Word, Politics and Citizenship

Our “Wanted” Women are:

Leoni is a young carer and student living in the UK in 2020. Struggling with anxiety, poor mental health and a desire to make change, Leoni expresses herself anonymously through spoken word as Poetic Justice.	Dr James Barry was a top military surgeon in the British Army, and lived life as a man, at a time when women were not allowed to practice medicine. Dr Barry performed one of the first successful Caesareans where both mother & baby survived.	Phoolan Devi was an Indian bandit, who enacted revenge against those who commit sexual violence. She later became an MP who stood up for the rights of lower caste women.	Olive Morris was a British community leader & activist in the feminist, black nationalist and squatter’s rights campaigns of the 1970s, and a member of the British Black Panther Movement.	Irena Sendler was a social worker, who served in the Polish Underground movement during the Second World War in Nazi occupied Warsaw. She led the rescue of 2,500 children from the Ghetto.
