

What is KYCC?

kent youth county council is a group of young people elected to represent and act upon the views, issues and opinions of the young people in Kent.

How do I get involved?

KYCC is open to all young people, aged 11 to 18 years, across Kent. 60 young people from across the county will be elected to represent the views and issues of young people in Kent and campaign on the top 3 issues for young people.

What about voting?

This year's elections will take place from 6 to 19 November. To get involved sign up by Sunday 15th October.

Four young people are elected to represent each of Kent's 12 districts. We also elect 12 community seats, ensuring KYCC is representative of all communities in Kent.

KYCC ELECTIONS 2023

What happens if I get elected?

If successful, depending on how many votes, you'll either get elected on a 2-year term as a member or serve for 1 year as a deputy member. Lots of training and support is provided.
