UNIVERSAL SUPPORT LEVEL 1

Universal services are provided to or are routinely available to all children and families. These services are accessed in the local community and delivered by partners including schools, GPs, hospitals, community health services, children's centres, youth hubs, police, fire service and voluntary and community groups

If you require support for a child or family at this Support Level, here are some questions to ask yourself;

What support is needed and where can I get this? The first step is to discuss any concerns with the family and agree what action is needed. This may be that your service is able to provide some extra support or it may be that you can signpost the family to another agency.

Are the family requesting support?

Yes—discuss support required and gain consent

What support is needed and where can I get this? The first step is to discuss any concerns with the family and agree what action is needed. This may be that your service is able to provide some extra support or it may be that you can signpost the family to another agency

Have I tried all my resources?

All your inhouse resources should be tried before considering involving another agency.

What other services can I contact locally for support, have I tried all these?

Please check online for other services in your local area.

What do I do next?

This will depend upon the support required. Firstly speak to the family about which professionals or services are already involved with the children/family; consider other Universal Services e.g. GP or Health visitor, Nursery, Education/school, Church, Local Charity or Voluntary or Community group.

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT LEVEL 2

Children and families with additional needs who require extra help to improve education, parenting, behaviour or to meet specific health needs. These needs can be met by universal services working together or with the addition of some targeted services

If you require support for a child or family at this Support Level, here are some questions to ask yourself;

What support is needed and where can I get this?

The first step is to discuss any concerns with the family and agree what action is needed and where the family would like to receive support from. Signpost the family or contact the service direct Ensure you have 'agreement to engage' before taking any action.

Have I tried all my agency resources?

All your inhouse resources should be tried before considering involving another agency.

What other services can I contact locally for support, have I tried all these?

Please check online for other services in your local area via KSCB website, Headstart Resilience Hub, SEND local offer or by contacting your local networks

What do I do next?

This will depend upon the type of support required. Firstly speak to the family about whom or which services are already involved with the children/family.

With agreement other options available may include;

- Contact the child's school*
- Contact a local Group or Charity*
- Contact your local Borough Council*
- Contact the School Health Team*
- Contact your local Youth Hub*
- Contact your local Children's Centre*

INTENSIVE SUPPORT LEVEL 3

Intensive support can be offered to children and families where they have complex or multiple needs requiring local authority services to work together with universal services to assess, plan and work with the family to bring about positive change. Includes Intensive Family Support Early Help and/or Child in Need services

Does my concern meet this Support Level?

Unsure—discuss your concerns with your agency Designated Safeguarding Lead.

Yes—see below

Do I have the agreement to engage?

Yes—complete the Request for Support Form

No—It is important that you share your concerns with the family and gain their agreement to complete the Request for Support form.

Unsure—Please speak with family about your concerns and the support required and gain their 'agreement to engage' before completing the Request for Support form.

Has any previous support helped?

It is helpful to know what has worked well previously to identify the right support for the family. Please include this in the information you provide.

Do you need advice?

Please speak with your agency Designated Safeguarding Lead in the first instance.

What do I do next?

Agreement from the family to engage is required especially if Early Help is likely to be the most appropriate support for the family. If you have not discussed your concerns with the family please do so before completing the Request for Support Form.

If you have 'agreement to engage' then

Complete a Request for Support form

SPECIALIST SUPPORT LEVEL 4

Children who are considered to have been harmed or are likely to suffer significant harm as a result of abuse or neglect/ removal from home/or will suffer serious lasting impairment without the intervention of local authority statutory services under high level concern Child in Need (CIN) or high-risk Child Protection (CP) Services and Specialist Youth Justice work.

Children whose disability affects all aspects of development.

Does my concern meet this Support Level?

Is this an immediate safeguarding concern?

Yes—If there are concerns that a child may be suffering significant harm, the Request for Support form should be completed and immediately submitted to the Front Door. The Form can be located at kscb.org.uk/supportlevels

Unsure—discuss your concerns with your agency Designated Safeguarding Lead.

No—discuss your concerns with the family and gain their agreement to engage with services—see below

Do I have consent/'agreement to engage'?

The family's 'Agreement to Engage' is required before you complete the Request for Support form unless there is immediate risk, or if it places a child at risk of significant harm. A completed copy of the form should be shared with the family. You should therefore have discussed your concerns with the family and explored with them what the most appropriate support may be for them. The family should be aware that the form will be used to determine the most appropriate support available. If the family refuse 'Agreement to Engage' this should not influence the decision to complete a Request for Support form where the level of concern warrants this.

What do I do next?

Complete a Request for Support form

Do you need any further information or guidance?

Go to; kscb.org.uk/supportlevels

REMEMBER— You only need to complete a Request for Support Form if you are requesting support at Intensive or Specialist Support Levels 3 or 4.

Please do take care when completing the online 'Request for Support' form, because the information you provide in the form, will be used to assess which is the most appropriate level of support required. If it is not assessed to require support at Level 3 or 4, the form will be returned to you so that you can consider the Support Level 1 or 2 options. Information at kscb.org.uk/supportlevels
