

IDENTITY AND BELONGING

Meeting the needs of refugee children and young people seeking asylum

One day conference that aims to inform practice in supporting refugee children, and young people seeking asylum. We will present current research that identifies the challenges facing these young people, and explore practical strategies to support this 'at risk' group by developing a positive sense of identity and belonging in school or FE college.

Designed for: a wide range of professionals from education, social care and psychology

Format: presentations, Q & A sessions, interactive workshops and opportunities for networking and reflections on practice

Speakers include: Professor Charles Watters (Director, Centre for Innovation and Research in Wellbeing, University of Sussex; keynote), Dr Lindsey Cameron (University of Kent), Claire Collins (Lead of Special Interest Group for Educational Psychologists working with Refugees and Asylum Seekers), representatives from Kent Refugee Action Network

Monday 10 July, 09.30-16.00

Keynes College, University of Kent, Canterbury campus

Free to attend, all welcome

Organisers: Kent Educational Psychology Service and Dr Lindsey Cameron (University of Kent)

For more information and to register
www.kent.ac.uk/psychology/identitybelonging2017
E: identitybelonging2017@kent.ac.uk
T: 01227 827873

University of
Kent