

Examples of evaluations of training sessions

All evaluations this year: 98% excellent, 2% good

“An excellent overall training with the opportunity to review the school’s needs. [I now] know how to support [trans] children in our school and [the] important changes that need to be made.”

“I have learnt so much! I will order resources and build into the PHSE curriculum across the school for whole school discussions and assemblies and put up an ‘OK to be different’ display.”

“What have I learnt? The issues and practicalities [of trans inclusion] within the school setting as well as developing policies, practice and the curriculum - It all really!”

“Clear sound advice to support individual pupils in school, It was useful exploring children’s perspectives. I will now find out what student’s thoughts are, what they need in school, what they want to see and what they experience.”

“Very clear and comprehensive – thank you - I gained useful resources and ideas for staff training, will communicate the key messages to my team and highlight the usefulness of phasing out gender based practices and language.”

“Excellent starter activity to discuss words and phrases to ‘myth bust’. I have learnt new terminology and approaches within school to address potential transphobia and homophobia.”

“Good mixture of training methods. Strengths? Relaxed and helpful [and] small group discussions with other delegates, I learnt so much from their personal experiences. Lots of questions answered!”
